DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-3 are pending in the application and were examined on their merits. The 1.132 declaration submitted on 12/27/07 is acknowledged and considered. Since the Tangcao Tablets in 1.132 declaration which were being tested in clinical trials were made from different types of extracts of the claimed components, whereas “raw medicinal materials” of the components were being claimed for treating AIDS, it is not clear whether the “raw medicinal materials” would have any effect in treating AIDS or increasing CD4 counts. Therefore, the 1.132 declaration does not commensurate with the scope of the claims. Thus “for treating AIDS” are deleted from the claims.

An examiner’s amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner’s amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Jiawei Huang on 1/23/2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claim 4 (cancelled).

Claims 1-3. Delete “for treating AIDS” in line 1.

Claim 3. Change "Purslande" to "Purslane" in third line from the bottom.

IN THE ABSTRACT:

Delete "for treating AIDS" in line 2.

IN THE SPECIFICATION:

Delete the original title, and type the new title which reads as "Pharmaceutical composition comprising a combination of Chinese Traditional Medicines".

OBJECTION TO OATH

The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because: The citizenship of the second inventor is not listed in the oath.

Claims 1-3 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Use of the claimed components for the same purpose, is free of the art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
